

Emily Albines

emilyalbines@gmail.com

(301) 281-3122

EDUCATION

Queens College City University of New York

Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science, Expected Graduation May of 2025

Major: Environmental Science Minor: Geology

Overall GPA: 3.45

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Department of Environmental Protection

June 2018 - August 2018

Intern

- Worked in public outreach events to educate the public on environmental health importance.
- Created posts for the DEP official Instagram
- Acted as a language liaison during outreaches to predominantly Latin communities

Alley Pond Environmental Center

June 2022 - Present

Per diem educator and receptionist

- Teach environmental classes to preschool through 12 grade students with obstacles ranging from special needs, language barriers, and low-income communities.
- Classes include Native Americans, Reptiles and Amphibians, Mammals, Endangered Species, and Insects and Arachnids
- Send press releases of upcoming programs to local Queens news outlets
- Tasked with social media outreach on Facebook, Instagram, and Tiktok

Queens College

Jan 2024 - Present

Peer Mentor for Geology 101

- Assist students with understanding course content during lecture
- Host office hours outside of class time where students can ask additional questions
- Host exam review sessions
- Create presentations for the exam review sessions

SKILLS

Proficient in Microsoft Office applications
Advanced English
Conversational Spanish
Elementary Proficiency French
Developing Python skills

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Volunteer at Queens Zoo
Volunteer at North Shore Animal League
Volunteer at Bayside Historical Society